

Khanh Ngoc Le

Designer and artist with 2 years of professional experiences in visual/communication design for both in-house and client work.

Education

BFA, Graphic Design

Bowling Green State University
Fall 2019 - May 2022

Associated Degree of Arts and Sciences

University Of Wisconsin Colleges
Fall 2017 - May 2019

Work Experience

Design Intern

SARANKCO New York, NY
June 2022 - June 2023

Designed and collaborated with internal departments to assist the creative and production processes to deliver in-house products and external work to clients in various forms including branding, print design and digital design.

Clients: American Express, Lowe's, Delinea

Membership Director

AIGA BGSU Chapter Bowling Green, OH
Fall 2021 - Spring 2022

Organized recruitment and teambuilding activities, designed marketing and content materials including but not limited to posters, postcards and stationery system. Appointed person of contact for members of the group and oversaw membership associated matters.

Design Intern

BGSU Fine Arts Galleries Bowling Green, OH
Fall 2020 - Summer 2021

Conceptualized, developed and produced both printed and digital materials for gallery events in a team of two. Assisted with the preparation and installing processes of both virtual and physical exhibitions in partnership with external clients and internal school departments.